

later months, and 75% April through September, summer months, are considered acceptable.

4. Special consideration will be given where the well being of a parent of the Director or a director may be jeopardized.